

Air France showcases lounge coming to London Heathrow

A 3D rendering of the future Air France lounge at LHR, opening scheduled for spring 2026

In spring 2026, Air France will open a new lounge promoting the French art of hospitality, located in Terminal 4 of London Heathrow Airport (LHR). This new exclusive space will be reserved for the airline's La Première, Business (excluding Business Lite fares) and Flying Blue Elite Plus customers, as well as eligible travelers flying with KLM and SkyTeam partner airlines.

Designed by Air France teams together with the agency SGK Brandimage, the lounge will have a surface area of more than 750 square meters, and will offer approximately 150 seats. Travelers will have access to dining areas showcasing French fine dining and a spacious bar featuring a refined selection of French wines and champagnes. Dedicated spa and relaxation areas and a space for working will also be available.