

Air Canada toasts Economy Class with complimentary beer, wine and snacks on all flights

Air Canada is making complimentary beer, wine and exclusive Canadian-made snacks available across all flights

Air Canada is making beer, wine and exclusive Canadian-made snacks available for all passengers on all flights, including routes to Mexico and the Caribbean. The updated offering for Economy travelers launched on September 1.

"As part of our commitment to elevating the onboard experience, we're delighted to introduce even more exciting new options to our menus," said Scott O'Leary, Vice President, Loyalty & Product at Air Canada. "These upgrades offer something for everyone and proudly showcase Canadian brands so that our customers can sit back, relax and kick-start their travels no matter where they are going."

New sips and snacks:

- Morning flights (before 10 a.m.): MadeGood Mornings Cinnamon Bun Soft Baked Oat Bars join the line-up of complimentary snacks onboard, alongside TWIGZ Craft Pretzels and Leclerc's Celebration Cookies.
- Toronto-Downtown Billy Bishop flights (after 10:30 a.m.): From Canadian brand Greenhouse, known for its organic and plant-based products, complimentary Greenhouse Ginger Defence Wellness Shots will be available. These shots are also featured in Air Canada's premium snack baskets and Bistro menu.
- Expanded Air Canada Bistro: Now featuring more Canadian-made choices, from Summer

Fresh Hummus & Crackers and Quaker Maple & Brown Sugar Oatmeal Cups to bold new TWIGZ Sour Cream & Onion Pretzels and fan-favourite Smarties.

- New pour: With Heineken 0.0, Air Canada now offers a non-alcoholic beer inflight, complementing its system-wide free beer and wine offering.

In addition to rolling upgrades to its food and beverage offering, Air Canada has introduced a revamped mobile app, expanded inflight entertainment, refreshed and newly refurbished and opened lounges and more. Fast, free Wi-Fi, sponsored by Bell, is available for Aeroplan Members on flights across North America and to-and-from Sun destinations, in Mexico and the Caribbean.
