

Air China resumes Beijing-Munich flights

Representatives of Air China and Munich Airport joined the crew in celebrating the relaunch

Air China has resumed its daily flights between Beijing and Munich after a pause of over three years due to the pandemic.

The airline will now operate modern 777-300ER long-haul aircraft on the route. To celebrate the return, passengers were greeted with gingerbread hearts upon arrival and departure.

The last passenger flight on this route was on March 23, 2020.