

American Airlines partners with Lavazza coffee

From early 2026, American Airlines travelers will be able to enjoy Lavazza's premium coffee blends across all cabins inflight and in select lounges

American Airlines is introducing a partnership with Lavazza coffee, a globally celebrated Italian brand known for its premium blends. For the first time, American passengers can enjoy a consistent coffee experience both on the ground and in the air.

"At American, we are focused on looking at every aspect of the customer experience, and a quality cup of coffee is an important part of that journey," said Heather Garboden, American's Chief Customer Officer. "We are proud to team up with this iconic brand to bring a rich, satisfying coffee experience to our customers — whether they're in the air or relaxing in our lounges."

Lavazza, a family-owned Italian brand since 1895, is dedicated to crafting exceptional coffee experiences that reflect a legacy of expertise, passion and innovation. For the last 130 years, Lavazza has been at the forefront of coffee craftsmanship, blending time-honored Italian traditions with modern techniques to create premium coffees that are rich, balanced and universally admired. By partnering with Lavazza, American is bringing a globally respected name in coffee to its passengers — one that aligns with the airline's focus on refined offerings and exceptional service throughout the journey, the press release stated.

"Partnering with American Airlines allows us to bring the true Lavazza experience to travelers around the world," said Hossam Ashraf, Americas President at Lavazza Group. "At Lavazza, we believe in creating moments of pleasure and connection through coffee, and collaborating with a brand that shares our commitment to exceptional experiences helps strengthen our presence and footprint in the market."

Beginning in early 2026, American Airlines travelers will be able to enjoy Lavazza's premium coffee blends across all cabins inflight and at American's Flagship® and Admirals Club® lounges across the system.
