

ChangeGroup to operate foreign exchange services at Toulouse-Blagnac Airport

ChangeGroup has secured a contract to offer a range of currency exchange services at Toulouse-Blagnac Airport. The deal, announced on March 1, will have ChangeGroup operating two currency exchange branches: one in the departure lounge of the airport and one at arrivals.

A range of premium services will be offered at the two branches including fast travel cash in over 50 currencies, international bank transfers, Travel Money Online services and tax refunds.

According to the release, ChangeGroup's investment in the venture has seen "a complete rebrand of the two units in order to improve the look and feel of the branches, engaging customers and therefore enhancing their airport experience." Rebranded LED displays were made to ensure messaging is clear, engaging and regularly updated.

Sacha Zackariya, CEO and Co-Founder of ChangeGroup International, said in the release: "Toulouse is a fantastic addition to our network across France. There has been a major shift in the French foreign exchange market coming out of the pandemic and there is a real opportunity here for us to further expand across the country."

ChangeGroup's French network is led by Directeur France, Gregory Dumartin. Eight new jobs have been created across the Toulouse-Blagnac airport branches as a result of the partnership.
