

Famous Malaysia Airlines satay available for home consumption

Malaysia Airlines' signature satay served for decades in Business Class and Business Suite is now available for purchase online and home delivery exclusively through the airline's e-retail store, Temptations.

Each hygienic pack has six sticks of frozen, pre-cooked and ready-to-eat chargrilled chicken or beef satay plus one individually packed authentic peanut sauce. Priced at RM26 (US$6.25) for chicken satay and RM36 (US$8.65) for beef satay, excluding delivery charges. Orders will be delivered within five working days. SMS/WhatsApp/Email notifications will be sent before delivery to ensure the quality and the freshness of the Satay stays.

Currently, the satay will be available to customers living in the Klang Valley area which is Selangor, WP Kuala Lumpur and Putrajaya only. This dish comes with simple, easy-to-follow heating instructions, making it highly convenient as a quick snack.

A Malaysia Airlines cabin crew member turned entrepreneur named Michael Carlos manages the Malaysia Airlines Signature Satay home delivery through Carlos Space, a newly established enterprise. Carlos Space is a food and product delivery business that offers bespoke services to meet individuals and companies' various delivery needs.

"Our satay has been served onboard since we first took to the skies in 1973 and we are delighted to share it with customers with the rollout of the home delivery service of Malaysia Airlines Signature Satay today," said Group Chief Marketing and Customer Experience Officer of Malaysia Airlines Berhad, Lau Yin May. "During normal times, we uplift 17,000 sticks of satay on our 300 flights daily, today we are happy to share our Malaysian Hospitality with customers, many of whom have not had the opportunity to travel with us for over a year, via Temptations."
