

JetBlue celebrates 24 years in 2024

JetBlue's birthday treats marking 24 years in 2024

This week, JetBlue marked its 24th birthday with celebrations among crew members and business partners, while also including passengers in the festivities.

“Happy birthday to all our crewmembers, customers and business partners! Thank you all for keeping us young, happy, loved, creative, honest, kind, respectful, compassionate and brave,” said Maja Gedosev, GM Europe at JetBlue, via LinkedIn. “If you flew with us today, you definitely got some extra love from our JetBlue airport teams.”

Teams at Paris Charles de Gaulle (CDG), Amsterdam Schiphol (AMS), London Gatwick (LGW) and London Heathrow (LHR) are participated in spreading birthday cheer to passengers with cookies and other treats.

Gedosev hinted via LinkedIn that in its 24th year, JetBlue may be expanding its flight network to Dublin Airport (DUB) and Edinburgh Airport (EDI), among others.
