
Joe & The Juice stirs up PIT

By Jane Hobson on September, 25 2019 | Airline & Terminal News

Joe & The Juice "juicers" serve freshly prepared juices, veggie shots, smoothies and more at the new 860-square-foot location in Pittsburgh International Airport.

Danish juice bar and coffee shop chain Joe & The Juice is set to celebrate the grand opening of a new location at Pittsburgh International Airport (PIT) on September 27.

The 860-square foot juice bar and coffee shop in Concourse B (near Gate B27) serves a selection of freshly prepared combinations and vegetable beverages, along with coffee, tea, sandwiches and smoothies made with organic ingredients. The juice bar offers a large communal seating area with mid-century style furniture, bright artwork and book-lined shelves.

The grand opening event will preview the fall menu with samples of 'Green Sports Juice', a mix of cucumber, pineapple and apple.

Founded in 2002 by Kaspar Basse, Joe & The Juice now has more than 300 locations in 16 countries.
