

LOT Polish Airlines to launch direct flights from Warsaw to San Francisco

LOT Polish Airlines launches direct route from WAW to SFO

LOT Polish Airlines has been consistently expanding its presence in North America by launching a subsequent direct transatlantic connection. The United States of America remains one of the carrier's key long-haul markets, with growing potential for both business and leisure travel. Tickets for the new direct flights from Warsaw Chopin Airport (WAW) to San Francisco (SFO) are now available across all LOT sales channels, including lot.com, LOT Contact Centre and at LOT Travel offices.

The first flight on the WAW-SFO route will be inaugurated by LOT Polish Airlines on May 6, 2026. Passengers can enjoy four weekly services, scheduled to operate in the summer of 2026. Flight LO035 to San Francisco will take off on Thursdays and Sundays at 11:15 a.m., while flight LO037 will take off on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 5:40 p.m. Passengers will travel to Warsaw on the same days, but onboard flight LO036 at 3:50 p.m. and LO038 at 10:15 p.m., respectively. This means that passengers will spend approximately 11 hours and 30 minutes on board the comfortable Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft operated by the national carrier.

Robert Ludera, Registered Representative and Director of the Network Department at LOT Polish Airlines said, "Transatlantic flights are of strategic importance for LOT Polish Airlines. In the past 12 months, 800,000 passengers travelled on all LOT flights between Poland and the United States. Not only will the new route connect the heart of Europe with the global hub for technology and innovation, but it will also open up new opportunities for both business travelers and tourists.

"San Francisco, along with neighbouring Silicon Valley, is the cradle of numerous global brands and a location that consistently attracts entrepreneurs and investors from around the world. It is also a city of exceptional charm, rich in culture, history and unique vibe, which has enjoyed unflagging popularity among tourists for years. We are delighted to expand our offer with a successive direct flight to the west coast of the United States and invite passengers to join us on our flights."
