PPG opens domestic lounge at NGO in Terminal 1

Plaza Premium Group (PPG) has announced the opening of Plaza Premium Lounge at Chubu Centrair International Airport (NGO) Terminal 1. Strategically located in the domestic departures area, the airport's sole domestic lounge is designed to provide travelers with comfortable and convenient pre-flight experience. With capacity for up to 149 pax, the space offers a relaxing environment where passengers can rest, work, or enjoy refreshments before their flight.

The lounge is open daily from 6:00 am to 9:00 pm (or until last flight departure) and offers comfortable seating, dedicated work areas, complimentary Wi-Fi, refreshments and selected alcoholic beverages. It is open to walk-in travellers (subject to availability), programme members and eligible airline passengers, including select All Nippon Airways (ANA) and Japan Airlines (JAL) passengers.

The walk-in admission price will be JPY 1,500 per person (~$9.77 USD), excluding tax.

"We are delighted to expand our presence at Chubu Centrair International Airport with the opening of our new domestic lounge. This strategic expansion into the domestic terminal reinforces our long-term commitment to Nagoya, enabling us to serve both domestic and international travellers with a comfortable, welcoming space ahead of their journey," said Sean Kim, General Manager (Japan & Korea), Plaza Premium Group.

The opening underscores Plaza Premium Group's growing footprint in Japan, reinforcing its global mission to make travel better for passengers worldwide.
