Plaza Premium Lounge will launch its first independent pay-per-use lounge this fall at Winnipeg Richardson International Airport in the departures area.

Access to the Plaza Premium Lounge can be purchased for CA$40, and marks the brand's 12th lounge opening in Canada.

Plaza Premium Lounge will feature a standalone bar and a variety of food offerings. Extensive glass walls will serve to create a feeling of openness.

"This is an exciting new concept for our passengers and our airport," said Barry Rempel, President & CEO of Winnipeg Airports Authority. "We strive to provide our customers with the best service and experience we can, and this partnership with Plaza Premium Lounge will allow us further enhance our passengers experience while they're at our airport."

Plaza Premium Lounge has more than 110 locations in 28 international airports. The company says it will open 50 new locations in the next two years. There will be Plaza Premium Lounges at London

Heathrow's Terminals 2 and 4 by end of 2014.
