Aircraft Interiors Expo (AIX) highlighted the AIX 2023 Stand Awards on LinkedIn and X (formerly Twitter) this week, shouting out winners across three categories. Unum Aircraft Seating, SEKISUI KYDEX and MGR Foamtex Ltd., are the winners of the AIX 2023 Stand Awards, selected for memorable presence at AIX Hamburg this past June.

Unum Aircraft Seating took home the Best Exhibitor Stand: Press Award, an accolade that is given to the exhibitor deemed to have the best stand at the expo. This award is voted on by industry press attending the event, making it a peer-selected category.

PAX Tech did not participate in these awards and did not cast any votes.

MGR Foam Ltd. took home the AIX 2023 Recognition Award, which was voted for by the AIX team.

“It is fantastic for the whole MGR Foamtex team. We are proud to have been recognized, and the Award is one of the highlights of our 25-plus year attendance at the show,” said the company.

SEKISUI KYDEX took home the first ever Public Choice Award from AIX in 2023, an accolade that is voted on by other conference attendees.

SEKISUI KYDEX commented saying, “Receiving the first ‘Public Choice’ Award feels especially fulfilling because the attendees voted for the winner. We’re truly delighted to receive the award for our new booth, designed with sustainability and purpose integrated into every detail.”

Registration is now open for AIX 2024. The exhibitor directory is available online. The expo will take place from May 28 to 30, 2024, in Hamburg, Germany.
