

AMI Group celebrates Global EXPO in style

AMI Group brought its international teams and invited guests together tonight for an evening of drinks, food and live music at the Ordinarie Tavern in Long Beach, California.

Decorated in a maximalist style, the Ordinarie was the perfect backdrop for the party that encompassed all things AMI is known for: excellent drinks (including a signature cocktail), food that begs for a second helping and warm catchups among friends—all in a relaxed and effortlessly chic environment.

Find pictures from the event below:

PAX International Managing Editor Jane Hobson (left) with Matthew Farrell, VP of Culinary Innovation and Development, AMI Group

The AMI team and colleagues at the Ordinarie Tavern in Long Beach, California

AMI Group's Emily Jordan, Marketing Coordinator (left) and Jane Hobson, Managing Editor at PAX International

PAX International Business Editor Robynne Trueman (left) with Jane Hobson, Managing Editor

The Ordinarie Tavern featured a maximalist style, complete with twinkling lights, walls covered in antique images and a well-stocked bar