

Inflight Dublin celebrates win at Aviation Industry Awards

David Miller, CTO, receives an Aviation Industry Award on behalf of Inflight Dublin in Ireland on December 5 Inflight Dublin celebrated its win at the Aviation Industry Awards last night, receiving three awards. The ceremony took place at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Santry, Ireland, on December 5.

“We are thrilled to share that our hard work, dedication and passion for excellence in the aviation industry have been recognized by the Aviation Industry Awards,” Inflight Dublin said in its LinkedIn announcement.

The company took home the awards for:

- Aviation Company of the Year
- Best Use of Technology Award
- Aviation Innovation Award

The Aviation Industry Awards recognize the achievements, milestones and innovations shaping the future of Irish aviation.

“These awards are a testament to our team’s relentless drive to push boundaries, innovate, and deliver exceptional results. They validate the commitment we have to our clients, partners and the entire aviation community,” said Inflight Dublin.