

LINSTOL unveils renovated U.S. office space

LINSTOL's updated U.S. office space

LINSTOL unveiled its freshly renovated U.S. office space to its team, partners and friends last week. The office in Naples, Florida, is designed to reflect the needs of the team and offers a light and inviting work environment and larger meeting spaces.

"As we celebrate the grand reopening of our new corporate office, we are reminded that our greatest investment is in our people. This extended and refreshed space reflects our commitment to creating an environment where collaboration, innovation, and employee well-being thrive," said Mark Russell, CEO, LINSTOL.