“We all are very impressed with your tendency to found really deep partnerships across the world, on a really international stage,” said Gröne. “Tonight we see that these partners are not only your business partners, you turned them into friends. You turned them into the LSG family.”

Rauer is stepping back from his role as Group CEO and has agreed to remain with the business as Senior Strategic Advisor.

Rauer thanked Gröne for his kind words and said, “It’s not about myself, I really had the pleasure to work with a great great team together over many years.”
