IntelSat exhibits at AIX Hamburg

Registration is now open for Aircraft Interiors Expo (AIX) and World Travel Catering & Onboard Services Expo (WTCE). Both shows are taking place at the Hamburg Messe from May 28 to 30, offering attendees a chance to discover the latest innovations elevating the passenger experience in the aircraft interiors, inflight catering and onboard services sectors.

Registering for AIX or WTCE grants industry members access to both shows, providing a chance for attendees to expand their knowledge of the latest trends and advancements. There is an array of first-time and returning exhibitors, networking opportunities and more to look forward to.

AIX focuses on technologies and hardware that enhance the cabin experience, featuring the latest products from airlines, OEMs, suppliers and designers. Attendees can expect to see displays showcasing seating and galley equipment to lighting, LEDs, cabin management systems and IFEC hardware from more than 400 suppliers. Returning exhibitors of note include Boeing, Airbus, Recaro, Safran, Panasonic Avionics and Collins Aerospace.

Co-located with AIX, WTCE is will bring together buyers from teh world's leading airlines and rail operators with suppliers focused on inflight catering, passenger comfort and onboard services. Exhibitors including Linstol, LSG Group, dnata, FORMIA and Buzz Products are confirmed for the 2024 showcase in Hamburg.

"We are very much looking forward to being in Hamburg this May for AIX and WTCE. These two events, co-located at the famous Hamburg Messe, are the perfect platforms for industry professionals to unite, share insights, and stay ahead in enhancing the onboard experience. Whether you're an industry veteran or a passionate newcomer, these events promise to showcase the latest and greatest across three full days of talks, presentations, and hands-on displays," said Polly Magraw, AIX and WTCE Event Director.
