IFSA Global EXPO has wrapped at the Gaylord Texan Resort & Convention Center in Grapevine, Texas, marking two days of bringing the onboard services community together.

Lauren Costello, Executive Director of the International Flight Services Association (IFSA), tells media partner PAX International that the move to the Dallas area marked a new chapter for the association, creating an event more closely tailored to the onboard services community.

Approximately 50 airline representatives explored the joint IFSA and Future Travel Experience (FTE) show floor this week, with around 75 exhibitors across 250 booths.
