

Allergen-free granola

Awesome Granola is available in Original and Chocolate

With one in 10 adults and one in 13 children suffering from food allergies McYoung Foods has developed an allergen-free granola made in a nut/tree nut free facility in the United States.

“This granola is a sign to all passengers that airlines understand the alienation that is created when individuals are forced to make dietary and lifestyle changes,” said a release from DFMi, which is distributing the product in the airline market.

AWESOME GRANOLA™ is available in Original and Chocolate flavors.
