

Castello Monte Vibiano hosts exclusive gala at Hamburger Kunsthalle

The iconic Hamburger Kunsthalle was the venue for the Castello Monte Vibiano gala

On the evening of April 8, 2025, Castello Monte Vibiano hosted an elegant and exclusive gala at the iconic Hamburger Kunsthalle, bringing together an intimate group of industry professionals and partners for a night of music, conversation and celebration. The event coincided with the opening day of WTCE 2025, offering a refined setting for meaningful networking beyond the show floor.

Located at Glockengießerwall 5 in central Hamburg, the Hamburger Kunsthalle provided a grand and historic backdrop for the evening. Guests were welcomed at 7:00 p.m. to the museum's neoclassical halls, surrounded by world-renowned works of art and stunning architecture.

Following cocktails at a walk through the the venue, the music kicked off with special guest pianist and composer Peter Bence delighting invitees with a performance. Bence's arrangements included "Despacito", Michael Jackson and Queen.

The purpose of the event was to celebrate Castello Monte Vibiano's ongoing commitment to luxury, sustainability and the art of fine living. The brand is known for its premium olive oils and dedication to eco-conscious production.

As the night unfolded, guests enjoyed a warm ambiance and carefully curated program, offering a memorable complement to the busy trade show schedule earlier in the day. The gala served as a reminder of the importance of personal connection in business, set against the timeless elegance of one of Hamburg's most treasured cultural landmarks.
