

En Route International blends tradition and innovation with baked bao buns

Baked bao buns from En Route

En Route International is doing what it does best—merging tradition and innovation with the introduction of its baked bao buns.

Created for passengers travelling in and out of Asia, the buns combine authentic flavours with the convenience of a portable snack. En Route tells PAX International the buns are an ideal Economy hot snack and are also suitable for premium cabins as an on-demand option or quick bite during flight. Each 60-gram bun is generously filled, making it a satisfying one-person snack. The product is packaged in pairs for a quick yet indulgent treat, each one a lightly baked taste of home or a new culinary experience to elevate the passenger journey.

Three authentic flavours

- BBQ Pepper Chicken
- Classic Char Siu Pork
- Vegetable

Optimized for onboard service

En Route's bao buns are designed for seamless integration into onboard service. The oven-ready packaging makes warming simple and hassle-free, bringing consistency and quality to each serving with minimal prep for crew.