

Food Accademia brings Italian fine food and beverage brands to WTCE 2026

Food Accademia will exhibit at WTCE in Hamburg this April

Food Accademia, since its foundation in 2016, has been discovering, selecting and introducing outstanding Italian Food and Beverage "Artisans" with products that align with passenger expectations.

The company was born from the idea to connect the excellence of Italian food and beverage to the world of duty free and travel retail, globally.

"We operate in this sense as a distributor of 100 percent Italian products from all regions of our country, whose common characteristic is high quality, without discriminating company size while offering knowledge of a wide and exclusive range of products, distribution, packaging and brand positioning," the company tells PAX International. "Our role and unquenchable curiosity to discover and bring to market only the very best of what the Italian food and beverage industry has to offer makes us absolutely unique in the sector."

Food Accademia will showcase authentic Italian fine food and beverages at the World Travel Catering and Onboard Services Expo (WTCE) in Hamburg, Germany, from April 14 to 16.

The distributor's chocolate, confectionary and dessert brands include ALAJMO, Domori, Fiasconaro, Pistì, Vincente Delicacies and Grondona. Fine Food brands on its roster include Tartufi Jimmy, Caviar d'Eden, Accademia Olearia, La Casa del Grano, Fox Italia Snacks and Acetaia Guerzoni. Its wine and spirit brands include Angelo Molinari, Ceci and OrodiAmalfi.

Meet the supplier at booth 1D88 at the Hamburg Messe from April 14 to 16.
