

Foodcase International: Focus on packaging and product range in Singapore

Foodcase International to focus on packaging, design and product range in Singapore

At this year's FTE APEX Asia Expo, Foodcase International is focusing on showcasing its latest and most innovative food products and packaging solutions.

"We are ready for the upcoming FTE Event, starting tomorrow in Singapore! At FTE you can expect our sustainable packaging, innovative design, product range and we are really looking forward to network with you," reads the company's LinkedIn post on November 7.

It continues: "We invite all visitors to our booth and experience at firsthand the revolution in food packaging that Foodcase has to offer."

Foodcase International's Duncan de Boer is participating in 'The future of inflight service and F&B at 35,000 feet' forum on November 8 at 3 p.m. local time, alongside Clinova's Steve Harvey and Jennifer Green of Procurall Solutions. This forum takes place on the Expo stage and is open to all attendees.
