Novel Foods has introduced an addition to its Indulge Mixed Nuts line: Indulge Roasted & Salted Macadamia Nuts.

“These macadamias offer a rich, buttery taste, carefully roasted and lightly salted for a satisfying snacking experience,” the company said in its press release.

Macadamia Nuts are recognized as a superfood and are packed with healthy fats that can provide health benefits. These include reducing inflammation, enhancing heart function and supporting overall wellness.

The 20-gram portion of this hearty snack is designed to appeal to a broad audience, including health-conscious adults and snack enthusiasts. It’s suitable for inflight consumption and on-the-go snacking.

The company is committed to creating snacks that are vegan-friendly, low-salt and environmentally responsible. Novel Foods now has offices in the UK (London), US (Sacramento) and EU (Portugal).
